

Ordering Eagle Parts and Feathers from the National Eagle Repository

For hundreds of years, Native Americans have used eagle parts and feathers for religious and cultural purposes, including healing, marriage, and naming ceremonies. Recognizing the significance of eagles to Native Americans, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (Service) established the National Eagle Repository (Repository) in the early 1970s to provide Native Americans with the carcasses, parts and feathers of Golden and Bald eagles for religious purposes.

• Who may obtain eagle carcasses, parts, and feathers from the Repository?

Only enrolled members of federally recognized tribes who are 18 years of age or older may apply to receive and possess eagle carcasses, parts, and feathers from the Repository for religious purposes.

• How do I request these items from the Repository?

Applications can be found online at:

http://www.fws.gov/permits/applicationforms/ApplicationB.html

 - 1. Fill out Form 3-200-15A (Permit Application and First Order Request) Online at: http://forms.fws.gov/3-200-15a.pdf
 - 2. Have your tribal enrollment office fill out the "Certificate of Enrollment in a Federally Recognized Tribe form".
 - 3. Submit all documentation to the permit office designated for the state you live in (see page 4).

- ✤ 10 Quality Loose Feathers:
 - > These consist of 8 wing feathers and 2 tail feathers.
 - ➢ Hand- picked.
 - > No more than 2 tail feathers will be provided per order, due to limited supply.
 - Wing feathers will be selected half from the left wing and half from the right wing, unless specified all from one side.

Yes, schools may request eagle feathers to present at graduation to Native American students who are enrolled members of federally recognized tribes.

- 2. More than one representative may apply.
 - a. Only one order per applicant may be pending at a time. This includes orders placed for personal use.
